

*a movement of movements:
calling all anti-capitalists...*

Since 1999 Mayday has re-established itself as a focus for anti-capitalists to gather and to celebrate our collective visions and mark our past struggles. This in turn began a dialogue which still continues, into the nature of such manifestations; how we engage with each other as a movement and how we relate such visions to those around us in our ideas and practice.

The next Mayday will fall on a Saturday. At present there are no firm plans for the content of Mayday 2004's celebrations, but there are a number of ideas and suggestions currently circulating. Before we begin however, let us dispel one assumption: it is by no means a certainty that an anti-capitalist event in London will take place on Mayday at all.

This then, is an open invitation to get involved in the process, to discuss, to share, to inspire and to plan. And remember to bring some ideas of your own!

We have called an OPEN MEETING to kick off the process on SUNDAY 18TH JANUARY from 2PM - 5PM at
LONDON ACTION RESOURCE CENTRE,
62 FIELDGATE STREET, LONDON E1.
(Nearest tubes: Aldgate East, Whitechapel)
